introduction

Barbecues and picnics are a great way for family and friends to spend time together and enjoy each other's company in an informal atmosphere. These recipes are sure to make your next backyard barbecue meal a great success.

backyard barbecue party

Here are some useful cooking tips:

- Cooking times will depend on the thickness of the meat, the efficiency of the barbecue and your taste.
- To test doneness, press with blunt tongs. Springy indicates that the meat is rare; slightly resistant indicates medium and firm to the touch signifies well done.
- Give the barbecue plenty of time to heat so that the meat is cooking over glowing coals, not over flames.
- When barbecuing kebabs, soak wooden skewers in water for about 30 minutes to prevent scorching, or cover ends with aluminum foil.
- Marinades add flavor and help to tenderize tougher cuts of meat. Leave meat in the marinade, covered, at least two hours, preferably overnight. Use honey or sugar sparingly in marinades as sweet mixtures easily scorch.

Also, some basic rules for carving.

- Allow roast meats to sit for 15 minutes, covered loosely with foil, before carving.
- Use a good-quality knife, as sharp as possible.

- A carving board to carve meat will avoid scratches on serving platters or dulling the knife.
- Carve meat across the grain, with a slicing rather than sawing action, making use of the full length of the carving-knife blade and with light pressure to avoid tearing the meat.

How to carve standing beef rib roast

- Carving will be easier if you have the backbone removed by the butcher and the rib bones cut short.
- Usually a rib roast is carved into slices, but hearty eaters may like a whole rib.
- Place the roast on a platter with rib side down and bone ends to the left. Using tip of knife, release meat from bone. Slice meat parallel to bone from top to rib. Using tip of knife cut along the bone, keeping close to bone, to release slices.

Anyhow, the keystone of any amazing backyard barbecue is the meat. Hamburgers and hot dogs are always a safe bet, but there are dozens of other types of meat you can cook outdoors on the grill or in the smoker.

1. Place raspberries in a food processor or blender and process to make a purée. Press purée through a sieve to remove seeds. Stir in icing sugar.
2. Place ricotta cheese, yogurt, caster sugar, vanilla essence and lime or lemon juice in a food processor or blender and process until smooth.
3. Divide mixture into two equal portions. Stir raspberry purée into one portion. Alternate spoonfuls of plain and raspberry mixtures in serving glasses and swirl to give a ripple pattern. Refrigerate for at least 1 hour. Garnish with blackberries, if desired.

tip from the chef

For thick yogurt, place yogurt in a sieve lined with a double thickness of cheesecloth or absorbent kitchen paper and drain for 2-3 hours at room temperature or overnight in the refrigerator.

Pair Aperol with bubbly wine and sparkling water, and you'll be hard-pressed to find a more refreshing and thirst-quenching cocktail. And because it's low in alcohol, you can start drinking early and still make it to dinner.

pineapple

gin & tonic

■□□ | Cooking time: 5 minutes

method

1. Grill, griddle or BBQ one pineapple wheel for 5 minutes before turning it over. Continue grilling until it is lightly browned, smoky and caramelized. Thinly chop grilled pineapple wheel and muddle it into your cocktail shaker. Add ice, gin and juice. Cut remaining pineapple wheel into wedges to use as garnish.
2. Shake for two minutes. Strain into a glass with ice. Top up with tonic water (prosecco is also delicious as an alternative to tonic here) and garnish with the remaining pineapple wedges, lime wedges, or a mint leaf.

ingredients

- > 2 pineapple wheels, tinned or fresh
- > 1¾ ounces gin
- > 2⅓ ounces pineapple juice
- > tonic water, to top up
- > 1 lime, optional
- > mint leaves, for garnish

Serves 1

Tip from the Chef

You can add a squeeze of lime if the drink is a little sweet for you. Tinned pineapple chunks are probably too wet to grill, but you could use them in the recipe without grilling!

mexican mojito

■ □ □ | Preparation time: 10 minutes

ingredients

- > 10 fresh mint leaves
- > ½ lime, cut into 4 wedges
- > 2 tablespoons white sugar, or to taste
- > 1 cup ice cubes
- > 1½ fluid ounces white rum
- > ½ cup club soda

method

1. Place mint leaves and 1 lime wedge into a sturdy glass. Use a muddler to crush the mint and lime to release the mint oils and lime juice.
2. Add 2 more lime wedges and the sugar, and muddle again to release the lime juice. Do not strain the mixture. Fill the glass almost to the top with ice. Pour the rum over the ice, and fill the glass with carbonated water. Stir, taste, and add more sugar if desired.
3. Garnish with the remaining lime wedge.

tip from the chef

Tonic water can be substituted instead of the soda water but the taste is different and somewhat bitter.
